

We are truly excited to announce a new partnership with Next College Student Athlete (NCSA), the largest, most-trusted recruiting network in the world and an official partner of US Youth Soccer. We realize that playing college soccer is a goal for most of you and this partnership represents another resource to ensure you maximize this once-in-a-lifetime process. For more information on NCSA, check out their men's and women's soccer recruiting guides.

What's next?

- Start your profile by clicking: Boilers FC: College Recruitment Form
- Team members should at a minimum build their profiles to be searchable by college coaches. Here is what you get with an NCSA profile.
- Talk to the NCSA Team and schedule your Recruiting Assessment, regardless of whether you just want the free profile or more access.

What does this partnership mean?

- You'll receive a free profile listed in the largest database of college coaches
- Every family should schedule a Recruiting Assessment to learn more from the NCSA Team
- If you'd like to invest in a premium NCSA membership which will provide you additional resources and access, Boilers FC families will receive a 10% discount

If you'd like to get ahead and start the process, email Dan Cornely at dcornely@ncsasports.org and he will fast-track your family! We encourage all Boilers FC families to take advantage of this opportunity to advance their recruiting journey.
